The President's Corner

By Deborah Evans, President

As the chill is beginning to set in, we are excited to welcome the new season with open arms and present the new schedule for the 2015 -2016 ski season.

We have heard your requests and have added yet another weekend Econo-trip. This makes for a total of three, one per month for January, February and March. We chose resorts that are all within driving distance and provide great bang-for-your-buck deals, as well as flexibility in the number of days one may choose to stay.

The Martin Luther King holiday in January and President's Day holiday in February offer the holiday Monday as an extra day for an extended weekend.

We are also incorporating a range of activities that will entice non-skiers to join us skiers.

The Black and White Dance

Once again the place was the Leaguers in Newark for Jersey Ski's annual fun and fund-raising event, where everybody wears black and white and shows off their best dance moves. Thanks to our generous sponsor REI, there were lots of door prizes to give out: Canvas bags stuffed with an assortment of JSSI gifts, for lasting memories of a wonderful evening.

The Jersey Ski & Sports Family Outing

Jersey Ski members and friends were well represented at the annual Family Outing at Rockland State Park, NY in July.

They will be missed

The passing of any member hits us hard. In recent months JSSI has suffered blow after blow with the loss of founders, past officers and member-friends who served the organization well.

We salute these three whom we recently lost.

Richard Whitten Sr. was one of the founders of Jersey Ski & Sports Inc. He served as one of our presidents and helped to shape the organization. An expert skier and certified ski instructor at Shawnee Mountain PA, Rich skied the big mountains throughout North America and Europe.

He worked for the US Postal Service, and the Essex County Department of Corrections and for a time was a baggage handler at Continental Airlines, a job that allowed him employee benefits for free travel all over the world, so he could ski the world.

You did not have to know him long to learn that he had proudly served his country as a Marine, and that he had a wife, Teresa, whom he dearly loved. Rich grew up without a father in his life, but he was a wonderful father to his children, Brian, Richard Jr., and Diane. He took it upon himself to help raise other relatives and neighborhood kids. He would round them up for outings, introduce them to skiing and serve as a sounding board and mentor.

He was a jazz lover, a savvy card player and a man concerned about his community. In 2006 Rich was among those the New Jersey Performing Arts Center honored in its "Tribute to the Elders," saluting him for his lifetime of service to the community.

Jersey Ski joins all those who celebrate his life, mourn his loss and thank his family for sharing him with all of us.

Madeline Holmes was affectionately known as "Mat." She studied at the Fashion Institute of Technology in New York, and had a passion for fashion design, interior decorating, sewing, dancing, modeling and the performing arts. Madeline's good looks and talents won her the Miss Black New Jersey title in 1968. In addition to being one of Jersey Ski's cornerstone members, she served as Secretary of the Eastern Region of the National Brotherhood of Skiers for more than 20 years.

Avant Lowther was for many years a driving force behind Jersey Ski's youth programs. He worked diligently on the club's programs to teach young people to ski and his son Dane was part of Jersey Ski youth. Avant taught science and mathematics at West Kinney Junior High School in Newark. He taught at-risk youth in the SOS program, worked summers as the adult education coordinator at Central High School in Newark and was a high school equivalency diploma instructor. He also served as union representative for the Newark Teachers Union.

Jersey Ski member Carla Harris went cycling in Texas with a group that churned out a series of 20-mile plus tours, often in 100 degree weather. And that's Carla kayaking this summer.
